Catholic Diocese of Lexington – Code of Conduct

Purpose

Priests, deacons, pastoral ministers, administrators, staff, and volunteer staff in our parishes, religious communities/institutes, and organizations must uphold Christian values and conduct. The Code of Pastoral Conduct provides a set of minimum standards for conduct in certain pastoral situations.

The Church must be exemplary. Clergy, staff, and volunteer staff should and will be held accountable for their behavior. In order to maintain the highest level of accountability, there must be a clear and unambiguous blueprint of appropriate and inappropriate behavior. The Code of Pastoral Conduct provides a basic structure for identifying limits. It is intended as a “continuous improvement document.” Therefore, suggestions and recommendations for additions and revisions are encouraged.

Responsibility

The public and private conduct of clergy, staff, and volunteer staff can inspire and motivate people, but it can also scandalize and undermine the people’s faith. Clergy, staff, and volunteer staff must, at all times, be aware of the responsibilities that accompany their work. They must also know that God’s goodness and grace supports them in their ministry.

Responsibility for adherence to the Code of Pastoral Conduct rests with everyone. Clergy, staff, and volunteer staff who disregard this Code of Pastoral Conduct will be subject to action by the Diocese. Corrective action may take various forms—from a verbal reproach to removal from the ministry—depending on the specific nature and circumstances of the offense and the extent of the harm.

- 1.1. Pastoral Counselors and Spiritual Directors shall not step beyond their competence in counseling situations and shall refer clients to other professionals when appropriate.
- 1.2. Pastoral Counselors and Spiritual Directors should carefully consider the possible consequences before entering into a counseling relationship with someone with whom they have a pre-existing relationship (i.e., employee, professional colleague, friend, relative, or other pre-existing relationship). [See Section 7.2.2]
- 1.3. Pastoral Counselors and Spiritual Directors should not audiotape or videotape.
- 1.4. Pastoral Counselors and Spiritual Directors must never engage in sexual intimacies with the persons they counsel. This includes consensual and nonconsensual contact, forced physical contact, and inappropriate sexual comments.
- 1.5. Pastoral Counselors and Spiritual Directors shall not engage in sexual intimacies with individuals who are close to the client—such as relatives or friends of the client—when there is a risk of exploitation or potential harm to the client. Pastoral Counselors and Spiritual Directors should presume that the potential for exploitation or harm exists in such intimate relationships.

Clergy, staff, and volunteer staff should avoid situations that might present a conflict of interest. Even the appearance of a conflict of interest can call integrity and professional conduct into question.

- 7.1. Clergy, staff, and volunteer staff should disclose all relevant factors that potentially could create a conflict of interest.

In these circumstances, the Pastoral Counselor or Spiritual Director shall advise the parties that he or she can no longer provide services and refer them to another Pastoral Counselor or Spiritual Director.

administrator may hold the child without a court order for a period not to exceed 72 hours. When a child is taken into custody by a law enforcement officer, hospital administrator or physician, a written notice shall be provided to the parent stating the reasons for removal of the child.

- 9.2.7. Immunity (KRS 620.050) - Anyone acting upon reasonable cause in the making of a report in good faith shall have immunity from any civil or criminal liability. Neither the husband-wife nor any professional-client privilege, except the attorney-client and clergy-penitent privilege, shall be a ground for refusing to report known or suspected child abuse.

9.4. Reporting and Compliance with Federal Law Related to Substance Abuse Treatment

Current federal regulations provide for strict confidentiality of the records of clients receiving services through alcohol and drug abuse treatment programs. Specifically, the Regulations on Confidentiality of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Patient Records (42 CFR, Part 2) provide that disclosure of any information which would identify a client as an alcohol or drug abuser is restricted. Historically, confusion has existed as this federal regulation has appeared to conflict with state laws which mandate the reporting of known or suspected abuse or neglect. Recent changes to the federal confidentiality requirements have clarified the priority of child abuse reporting. Current regulations eliminate any restriction on compliance with state laws and allow the reporting of suspected child abuse or neglect to the Department for Community Based Services (Federal Register, Volume 52, Number 110).

- 9.4.1. Federal regulations do not specifically address the remaining conflict with the Kentucky law which mandates reports of adult abuse or neglect (KRS 209). As a result, staff of chemical dependency treatment programs may initiate reports of suspected or known adult abuse in only the following manner:
- 9.4.2. work with the alcohol or drug abuser who is concurrently an alleged victim or perpetrator of abuser neglect to self report and request voluntary protective services;
- 9.4.3. refrain from providing the name or nature of the agency from which, the report is made, and the nature of the contact with the alleged victim or perpetrator;
- 9.4.4. initiate the report as an individual rather than as a representative of the chemical dependency treatment program. The source of a report of abuse or neglect is confidential unless it is released by court order (KRS 209.140); or
- 9.4.5. initiate the report anonymously.

10. Administration

- 10.1. Personnel and other administrative decisions made by clergy, staff, and volunteer staff shall meet civil and canon law obligations and also reflect Catholic social teachings and this Code of Pastoral conduct.
- 10.2. No clergy, staff, or volunteers shall use his or her position to exercise unreasonable or inappropriate power and authority.
- 10.3. In addition to this Code of Conduct employees of the Diocese shall receive a copy of the Employee Handbook and volunteer staff must be given the Volunteer Handbook.
- 10.4. Clergy, staff and volunteer staff shall attend and complete mandated training.

11. Staff or Volunteer Well-being

Clergy, staff, and volunteer staff have the duty to be responsible for their own spiritual, physical, mental, and emotional health.

- 11.1. Clergy, staff, and volunteer staff should be aware of warning signs that indicate potential problems with their own spiritual, physical, mental, and/or emotional health.
- 11.2. Clergy, staff, and volunteer staff should seek help immediately whenever they notice behavioral or emotional warning signs in their own professional and/or personal lives.
- 11.3. Clergy, staff, and volunteer staff must address their own spiritual needs. Support from a Spiritual Director is highly recommended.
- 11.4. Inappropriate or illegal use of alcohol and drugs is prohibited.
