

Primary Question

After you have quieted yourself, please reflect silently on this question. We will use these responses in the first round of the Conversations in the Spirit.

How might your parish be organized to encourage full and active participation and draw forth the gifts of others for the common good?

Write your ideas here:

Primary Question

After you have quieted yourself, please reflect silently on this question. We will use these responses in the first round of the Conversations in the Spirit.

How might your parish be organized to encourage full and active participation and draw forth the gifts of others for the common good?

Write your ideas here: